

The Refuge

Changing Lives Affected by Addiction
Through Christ

What does the Refuge offer?

Residential Ministries

No cost, 13-month residential multi-site discipleship and rehabilitation program for men and women ages 18+.

Project 614

Rebuilding community on the West side of Columbus through the local church, deep accountability, and low-cost housing for Refuge alumni.

Champions Network

A small group, Christ-centered redemption model that equips the church to serve the addicted and heal communities.

Refuge Replication

Seeking to serve other Christ-centered residential ministries in pursuing excellence to impact the world and bring glory to God!

What part will you play?

PRAY.

Join and help develop our ministry prayer team! Pray for the men and women in the residential volunteer ministry, their families, our champions around the state, and many more!

Follow Jesus' example to serve your fellow man. You could come alongside a champion in your community, volunteer your skills for a Saturday with Project 614, help with an upcoming event, serve as a mentor for Refuge men or women, and more!

SERVE.

GIVE.

Grow with God as you find and pursue ways to give to the Refuge. Commit to being a faithful giver, find donations for physical needs, serve as a table captain at our annual fundraiser and much more!

YOU can change lives affected by addiction
